Read the following text written by Surangi and answer the questions.

Last Monday was a very happy day for me. My father was in Oman for two years, working as an accountant for a company came home. I could not believe my eyes when I saw him standing at the door smiling cheerfully.

Then mother and everyone at home came running to welcome father. It was a pleasant surprise for them too. After a delicious meal of rice and curry prepared by my mother he distributed the presents he had brought for all of us. The album full of pictures he gave me was what I liked best.

At night we sat in the sitting room listening to him. He showed us a picture of sandy desert and said “ It is not always hot, humid and dusty everywhere in the desert ; Look at this this is Jebel Akdhar green mountain which is a very cold place. “In another picture there were camels standing still during a sand storm. In yet another picture father looked sad ‘I was sad because I missed all of you there but now I’m a very happy man” He said.

1. What is Surangi’s father ?.....
2. Why did everybody come running?.....
3. What was the present Surangi got?
4. Write another name for Jebel Akdhar?
5. When were the camels standing still ?

The Balloon man

He always comes on market days.
and holds balloons –a lovely bunch
And in the market square he stays
And never seems to think of lunch

They are red and purple,blue and green and when it is a sunny day
The carts and people get between you see them shining far away

And some are big and some are small and tied together with a string
And if there is a wind at all
They tug and tug like anything.
